Charlie Cosovich Joins ERDMAN's Advisory Services Team

Madison, Wis. – Charlie Cosovich recently joined ERDMAN's Advisory Services team. He will play an instrumental part in leading client engagements, using analysis and experience to assist health systems and physician organizations as they define and implement strategic initiatives that improve outcomes in health and wellness for the communities they serve. He joins our brilliant group of Executive Advisors, which includes Allen D. Kemp, M.D., MBA, Michael W. Bukosky, Paul Keckley, Ph.D., and Kerry Swanson. His breadth of expertise will be invaluable to support ERDMAN's clients address their most pressing issues.

Charlie's passion for improving care is evident in decades of being consistently engaged with a variety of healthcare organizations, ranging from integrated delivery systems to group practices. He has partnered with organizations in over 35 states, and with over 30 different academic institutions. His work regularly involves unique considerations at the intersection of teaching, research, and care delivery. His deep understanding of healthcare's most complex landscapes makes him a strong navigator, whether the scope is defined clinically, such as oncology, or geographically. He stays current with challenges faced in major urban system centers and rural, sole community providers. His experience also extends to mergers and acquisitions, recalibrating investments, and protecting investor interests.

"We are thrilled to have Charlie on our team," says ERDMAN Senior Vice President of Healthcare Robert Moss. "His commitment to excellence, combined with his diverse background, aligns incredibly well with our vision to improve every life we touch. He is an ace in making healthcare better and developing effective solutions through collaboration, insights, and Integrative Thinking™."

Charlie is looking forward to being a part of such a dynamic, well-known organization to help us carry out our mission to rethink the future of healthcare so leaders can build healthier communities.

About ERDMAN

At ERDMAN®, we believe the questions of new service offerings, population health, patient and resident experience, new care models, and facilities are not separate, isolated challenges. We believe that by looking at these challenges through multiple perspectives simultaneously, we come up with more effective and efficient solutions. Through our Integrative Thinking™, we take on the complex challenges of healthcare and senior living to help our clients build healthier communities. www.erdman.com.
